

No Cost Early Childhood Training: January- February 2012

Attend at Association for Supportive Child Care (ASCC) or schedule a session at your Flagstaff site on any topic that meets your current needs at a time that works for you and your staff!

RSVP to Rene Hobbs rhobbs@asccaz.org or 928-714-1716

Introduction to Program Guidelines, Developmentally Appropriate Practices, Classroom Environments

Friday, January 6

8:00 AM -3:00 PM

FUSD Family Resource, 4000 Cummings, Flagstaff

Learn recommended practices for programs striving for excellence. Identify quality and reflect on practices, activities, and instructional methods. Explore environments that reflect belonging and facilitate learning.

Language and Literacy Rich Environments

Thursday, January 12

6:00-8:00 PM

ASCC Office, 2708 North Fourth St, Suite C-1A, Flagstaff

The simple acts of meaningful conversations, reading aloud and providing opportunities to use "writing" tools, help children develop language, thinking skills and an understanding of written language.

Critical Thinking

Wednesday, January 25

4:00-6:00 PM...Please note time change from typical evening trainings

ASCC Office, 2708 North Fourth St, Suite C-1A, Flagstaff

Ellen Galinsky's Mind in the Making names critical thinking as one of the life skills every child needs. Help children develop their critical thinking skills by providing the necessary tools.

Play, Learn, Resolve

Friday, February 3

8:00 AM-3:00 PM

FUSD Family Resource, 4000 Cummings, Flagstaff

Discuss strategies that support learning and incorporate standards, interests and environment. Learn steps to conflict resolution and develop an individualized plan. Discuss teaching these skills to volunteer staff.

Keep Them Engaged!

Thursday, February 9

6:00-8:00 PM

ASCC Office, 2708 North Fourth St, Suite C-1A, Flagstaff

Learn how to simultaneously support learning and transition children into the next activity smoothly. See it from their perspective while achieving your goal.

Stress vs. Children

Thursday, February 16

4:00-6:00 PM...Please note time change from typical evening trainings

ASCC Office, 2708 North Fourth St, Suite C-1A, Flagstaff

Stress impacts children. Learn how to manage stress and the different factors that contribute to it: relationships, communication, support, control, temperament, adults, child care, other children and role models.

No Cost Early Childhood Training: March 2012

Attend at Association for Supportive Child Care (ASCC) or schedule a session at your Flagstaff site on any topic that meets your current needs at a time that works for you and your staff!

RSVP to Rene Hobbs rhobbs@asccaz.org or 928-714-1716

Process vs. Product Art: Promoting Creativity

Friday, March 2

8:00 AM -3:00 PM

FUSD Family Resource, 4000 Cummings, Flagstaff

Discover how creative expression creates a stimulating environment. Learn to promote art that focuses on the “process” rather than the product in your program.

FUSD Family Resource, 4000 Cummings, Flagstaff

Infant Toddler Games and Activities

Thursday, March 8

6:00-8:00 PM

ASCC Office, 2708 North Fourth St, Suite C-1A, Flagstaff

Engage infants and toddlers through age appropriate games and activities. Learn to support social, emotional, motor, thinking, and language skills that affect children from birth through everyday experiences.

Engaged Learning

Thursday, March 29

4:00-6:00 PM...Please note time change from typical evening trainings

ASCC Office, 2708 North Fourth St, Suite C-1A, Flagstaff

Reinforce the importance of having children set and achieve their own goals. See how social, emotional, and cognitive learning are connected. Understand how nurturing trustworthy relationships are significant to learning.

Funding provided by United Way of Northern Arizona, Flagstaff Community Foundation and Forest Highlands Foundation

